MOTION TO CANCEL HEARING

The United States, through United States Attorney David Rivera and Assistant United States Attorney Brent A. Hannafan, hereby requests this Court cancel the hearing on the superseding petition to revoke defendant's supervised release. (Docket No. 228). The hearing is set for July 25, 2014 at 1:30 p.m.

The parties appeared before this Court on the pending petition on April 28, 2014. At that time, the undersigned advised this Court that if the defendant complied with his conditions of release until the next hearing, the United States would not seek to revoke defendant's release.

The undersigned has spoken with Probation Officer Illarmo regarding the defendant. Officer Illarmo has advised that defendant has complied with his conditions since the April 28 hearing. Therefore, the United States is no longer seeking to revoke his supervised release and the hearing set for July 25 is not necessary.

WHEREFORE, the United States respectfully requests this Court cancel the July 25, 2014 hearing.
